Tre Lee, Trés Lynn!

By Alan f. Balch

When Mary Gaylord McClean rode down Freedom Hall's "victory lane" on According To Lynn as the World's Champion in the Five-Gaited Mare Stake Tuesday night, it capped a sensational night for her Golden Creek Farms, as both competitors and breeders.

According To Lynn, by ^{CH}Callaway's Born To Win out of Carol Lynn (BHF), is the older sister of Lynn Williams, by Top Spool out of the same Broodmare Hall of Fame dam. And Lynn Williams herself had just won the American Saddlebred Registry's very rich National Three-Year-Old Five-Gaited Futurity earlier in the same performance! So the human Lynn Williams, namesake of these other "Lynns," herself dam of World's Champion Saddle Seat Equitation Star Matthew Williams, was undoubtedly celebrating long into the night with the entire barn at the Byers' Premier Stables. Mary, of course, is the owner and breeder of the equine Lynns.

There was yet another star of the evening, though, in the person of the inimitable Tre Lee, who showed Lynn Williams to that win, and also (SA) The Starwalker, who topped the field in the Three-Gaited 15.2 Hands and Under Stake, for Melissa Moore. This World's Champion was bred in South Africa by Jack and Bill Schoeman, by (SA) Cloverleaf The Windwalker x (SA) Cloverleaf Sea Flower, by World's Grand Champion (SA) Zovoorbij Commander in Chief, now standing in the United States and himself perhaps the very first South African import to make a lasting impact in America. On the top side, Starwalker traces back to the all-American sire Supreme Sultan, arguably the most influential of all modern stallions.

Talk about rewarding pedigree research! According To Lynn traces back on the top side through World's Grand Champion ^{CH}Will Shriver, of course, to the immortal ^{CH}Wing Commander. Carol Lynn's Broodmare Hall of Fame credentials no doubt have something to do with ^{CH}Wing Commander appearing right there in both top and bottom in her pedigree, and her cross with Top Spool brings Hours: 9 a.m. to the conclusion of the evening performance.

The Saddlebred Center will be the hub for all things American Saddlebred Horse Association and American Saddlebred Registry during the Kentucky State Fair World's Championship Horse Show (WCHS). The Saddlebred Center is located on the concourse, across from the elevator in the southwest corner of Freedom Hall. It will be staffed with Registry associates to assist members, and computer stations will be available for members to utilize the Association's Web site or to check email.

Press Releases to your hometown newspaper available

Help promote the breed with a press release to the newspaper in your community. World's Championship Horse Show participants interested in having their hometown newspaper informed of their accomplishments during the week should stop by the Saddlebred Center. Forms requesting the necessary information to enable the Association to send a news release to your local newspaper will be available. Visit the Saddlebred Center to take advantage of this service from your breed Association.

First-timers, tell your story in American Saddlebred Daily

For those competing, attending or participating otherwise in the World's Championship Horse Show for the first time ever, American Saddlebred magazine wants to hear your story. During the week, in American Saddlebred Daily – ASHA's daily publication featuring horse show news, results and information – stories of "first-timers" will be told. From someone's first trip to the show to a maiden win, American Saddlebred Daily will share those special memory-making moments with those who'll appreciate them the most, fellow Saddlebred lovers. To have your "first-time-ever" story told, please visit the Saddlebred Center. Forms will be available to assist the Association's magazine staff in contacting you and telling your story.

both the ^{CH}Wing Commander and Supreme Sultan power into the pedigree of the equine Lynn Williams!

If anyone wants to understand the intrigue and magic and attraction of breeding American Saddlebreds, they need go no further than Mary Gaylord McClean's Golden Creek Farm, demonstrating all of that and more – the sheer fun of it – in showing homebred winners at the greatest Saddlebred show in the world.

As if all this weren't enough, Golden Creek Farms also won the Roadster Pony 50 Inches and Under Stake: Beulah Jean with Jeff McClean on the lines! Jeff and his wife have had a great many rewarding nights in the show ring, but this one has to be up there among the all-time most sensational.

And was that all? No, of course not.

In the very first class, the exceptionally gifted Glenview's Excelalante! graduated from his victory a year ago in the Two-Year-Old Harness Futurity to fulfill his promise with a win in the National Three-Year-Old Three-Gaited Futurity, for Martha Schriver and Edward W. Elliott, Jr., of Glenview, Illinois. By the exceptionally hot sire Designed x Tra La La, herself from the brilliant mating of Harlem Globetrotter with ^{CH}La La Success (BHF), the breeding program of the late Mrs. F. D. Sinclair and the late Charles Crabtree, just inducted in the American Saddlebred Horse Association Breeders Hall of Fame before he died earlier this year, came back into focus as it has so often. Chuck Herbert trains and showed this undefeated gelding, who has met all the top challengers and turned them all back thus far in the sport's top competitions.

It was another Louisville night where virtually every winner deserves a mention, including the great Swish, another Crabtree Farm product (Supreme Heir x Frosty Miss, foaled in 1997). Can you believe that Frosty Miss is out of that same mare Carol Lynn, from a mating this time with Harlem Globetrotter!? Shown again this year by Carol Hillenbrand, trained by John Conatser, it was the fourth consecutive year that Swish won the World's Championship for Amateur Five Gaited Stallions/Geldings, perhaps an unprecedented feat in arguably the show ring's toughest division of all.

Carl Fischer-bred Magic Fire Music (Catalyst x Whirlwind's Sound of Music, by C.M. Sultan's Private Contract) topped a large Three-Year-Old Fine Harness Futurity for owner Donald A. Rich of Connecticut, driven by Peter Palmer, delivering on the promise that was noticed a year ago by so many knowledgeable horsemen.

Yes, there were more winners, and with every winner at least a dozen stories that could be told, conveying the allure of the world's greatest show horse, the American Saddlebred. If you're in Freedom Hall, watching, listening, and learning, you cannot help but be struck by the enormous attraction of breeding these wonderful horses and watching their development and ultimate success in competition that cannot be matched anywhere else.

Anyone who isn't yet involved in breeding their own stars could multiply their enjoyment of the breed many-fold with just one carefully selected broodmare! It only takes one to start a dynasty – you might select the next Carol Lynn . . . and as the French would say, c'est très enjoyable!

Living the Louisville dream

By Daniel Rieffer

When Randy Weaver was diagnosed with colon cancer, priorities were adjusted. Randy moved reconnecting with horses up on his list. A light that had shined in his life long ago was now important to illuminate again. He'd shown horses in his youth. He knew then about Louisville.

What do you do when you're faced with cancer? If you fight and win that battle, as Randy did, do you resume as normal? I imagine you examine your entirety, life as a whole, and reflect on the things that have brought you the most joy. How precious is life now that you've seen how quickly and unexpectedly it can be shorter lived? With your new appreciation for the time you've been granted to live on this planet, wouldn't you focus on those things that have brought you the most joy?

"After he had colon cancer, he decided he wanted to get back into the horse business," says Randy's wife of 36 years, Laretta. Randy was already in the horse business, sort of. He owned a stable but, ironically, no horses. He rented his space to other horse owners, but the time had come to make space for one of his own.

Although nary a Saddlebred was stabled at his place, that's where Randy turned first, to a Saddlebred man. Specifically, Stanley Brown, who Randy knew to be a veteran of the horse show world. He told Stanley he wanted a horse strictly for recreational purposes, just wanted to get back in the saddle again.

"I got her in February (2002). She'd been turned out to pasture, and she had a winter coat, so she didn't look like a show horse at all," says Randy of his purchase of Stanley's mare. His wife explains that a few weeks later, "He came home and said, 'She's got show ring potential. She's got a big heart. She loves what she's doing.'"

Randy turned back to his pal Stanley, asked him to take a look at the horse he'd sold him and see what he thought of the mare's show potential. "Well," Randy says, "that trip back up to Stanley's in the aluminum trailer must've made her nervous. Stanley rode her that night and no rack, nothing." But just a few nights later, it was "rack on" and the beginning of what has been a life-long journey to Louisville for Randy.

After four years of working with his mare, Randy decided to call another friend in the show horse business, Marvin Ward, and asked if his mare was five-gaited material. Indeed, she was and in May of this year, Class Act Too brought home third at the Dixie Cup Spring Classic with Marvin aboard. Randy says she also impressed at the Pro-Am in Perry, Georgia, claiming the Georgia-Owned Five-Gaited title.

Encouraged by the performances and her pedigree, Randy and Marvin began discussing the possibility of bringing Class Act Too to the big dance. Class Act Too is by Oakbrook's Class Act and out of Bright Flight, by Flight Time. ^{CH}Wing Commander is the third sire on both sides of her bloodline. They decided to put Jan Henderson in the irons and show in amateur classes. Louisville, and Randy's dream, was now just around the corner.

"I'd always just wanted to be able to just see it (World's Championship Horse Show), never dreamed I'd have a show horse in it," says Randy. He finally made the trip to see the horse show two years ago and returned last year. But this time around, he's watching from Freedom Hall's upper deck as an owner of an entry.

Monday night, Class Act Too placed sixth in the Five-Gaited Ladies Amateur Mare.

"I thought it was one of the most ... to see her show was like Cinderella. I always believed in her. She has heart like Seabiscuit," explains Randy – beaming with that joy he likely had as a young man showing horses – shortly after seeing his mare compete, and complete the Louisville dream. "For her to be competitive for her first time at Louisville, air conditioning, green shavings and the crowd. Placing ... pssh. Impossible thing, I thought.

"Nobody would've ever thought she'd be a ribbon winner at Louisville. I have to thank Marvin, Audrey and Amanda Ward for believing in her, and my partner Terry Dean. Jan (Henderson) did a marvelous job riding her."

Five years after being turned out to pasture, Class Act Too's hooves hit the Freedom Hall footing and struck the heart of a man from Ellijay, Georgia, who'd thought maybe he, too, might be put out to pasture.

Class Act Too is entered in tonight's Ladies Five-Gaited Mare, class 149, the class immediately preceding the presentation of the Audrey Gutridge Award.

2:30 p.m. – ASHA Annual Raffle drawing.

Auction booklets are available at the stables, various hotels and the Saddlebred Center at Freedom Hall. Among the most attractive auction items this year is, once again, a premium covered terrace box of six seats on the third level for the 2008 Kentucky Oaks and Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. Other items include a Tommy Lovell rocking horse and a fine harness from Walsh Harness. Additionally, Hollywood celebrity and sports memorabilia will be featured – including a Ron Turcotte signed photo of the jockey riding Secretariat to victory; Muhammad Ali signed collage; Arnold Palmer signed Masters pin flag; football signed by Peyton Manning; Dale Earnhardt Sr. signed photo; Pete Rose signed baseball bat; Antoine Walker signed University of Kentucky basketball collage; and items signed by Steven Spielberg, Jack Nicholson, Al Pacino and Louisville native Johnny Depp. Photos of several items are viewable at www.saddlebred.com/auction.

Proceeds from the auction benefit the American Saddlebred Youth Programs, including scholarships.

ASHA announces Regional Championship Competitions for 2008

By Daniel Rieffer

At its meeting on Tuesday, July 31, the Executive Committee of the American Saddlebred Horse Association designated Regional Championship competitions throughout the United States for 2008.

The first official Regional Championship was held in 2005 at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, for the Northeastern Region. That competition was selected again, but in this instance for Region 11 only, encompassing the states of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Virginia and West Virginia. The event is scheduled October 14-18, 2008. A new Regional Championship event has been named for Region 12 in 2008 (Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont) at Eastern States Exposition in West Springfield, Massachusetts, scheduled for September 11-14, 2008.

The Mid-America Mane Event (October 23-26, 2008) in Springfield, Illinois, will replace the St. Louis Charity Horse Show as a Regional Championship in Region 5 in 2008.

Other shows designated as 2008 Regional Championships include the California Saddle Horse Futurity in Pomona, along with the Arizona Saddlebred Futurity in Scottsdale, the Northwest Saddlebred Association Fall Classic in Salem, Oregon, the Wisconsin Futurity Horse Festival in Madison, the Kentucky Fall Classic in Lexington, the North Carolina State Fair in Raleigh and the Southeastern Charity Horse Show in Conyers, Georgia.

According to Alan F. Balch, Executive Secretary of the Association, the number of applicants increased significantly this year. "We believe this is a result of more interest being generated in what is still a very new program. The Executive Committee really struggled with some of these decisions, since it's difficult to choose between competitions that are of good quality and had enthusiastic proposals. But ultimately they decided to add a new competition in the Northeast and also select the new venue in Illinois. We want to encourage more shows to apply each year, and the decision for 2009 will be made in July of next year."

Balch also noted that approval is pending for the State Fair of Texas in Dallas as a Regional Championship for Region 6/7 in 2008, contingent upon licensing by the United States Equestrian Federation, which is a requirement for consideration.

Grand National announces $24,000 in Championship supplements for 2007

By Daniel Rieffer

The American Saddlebred Registry's Grand National program has announced $24,000 in new Championship Stakes for 2007, to be held only at Regional Championship events that have been supporters of the Grand National in previous years. This announcement is the initial step in a future integration of the Grand National with the new Regional Championship series just begun by the American Saddlebred Horse Association.

Grand National Championship supplements of $3,000 each will be added to stakes purses already on offer in selected 2007 competitions. Only Grand National-eligible horses qualify to win the purse supplements for their current owners, recorders and nominators of the sire of the Grand National horse. Grand National prize supplements are awarded to the top finishing three horses in each class that are Grand National-eligible; therefore, horses other than those winning the top three prizes in the class itself may still win substantial prize money.

As a forerunner of pending changes in Grand National purse payouts, the $3,000 supplements will be paid equally to the Owner, Recorder and Stallion Nominator for each place, as follows: first is $1,500, with $500 to each; second is $1,050, with $350 to each; and third is $450, with $150 to each.

This year, at the Arizona Futurity, $3,000 is added to the Three-Gaited Show Pleasure Championship; at the California Futurity, to the Fine Harness Open Championship; at the Northwest Saddlebred Association Futurity, to the Three-Gaited Country Pleasure Championship; at the Wisconsin Futurity, to the Five-Gaited Open Championship; at the St. Louis National, to the Three-Gaited Open Championship and to the Five-Gaited Show Pleasure Championship; at the North Carolina State Fair, to the Western Country Pleasure Championship; and at the Southeastern Charity Horse Show, to the Three-Gaited Park Open Championship.

These Championship prize supplements are in addition to the other, different classes that have already been announced for these competitions as part of the regular Grand National prize program. Details on the Grand National are available at www.saddlebred.com/Prize-Grand-National. Grand National-eligible horses are denoted with a special symbol on their Certificates of Registration.

According to Registrar Alan F. Balch, Executive Secretary of the American Saddlebred Horse Association, the purse supplements are just the beginning of a sweeping reform and revitalization of the Grand National prize program. "At our convention earlier this year, the Grand National Committee tasked the staff to consult with Marcia Carothers, who has been with the Grand National since its inception, to brainstorm with our various constituencies ways and means to improve this important program. We brought a number of suggestions back to the Committee and the Registry board of directors, which then were developed and improved further. This is just the first in a series of announcements we will be making in the next week or so."

For a lifetime recording in the Grand National, at present, any horse by a Grand National Stallion can be recorded for life at the following fees: $1,500 for a four-year-old or older horse; $1,000 for a three-year-old; and $750 for a two-year-old. Stallions can currently be nominated for their lifetimes at $2,500 for a horse by a Grand National sire and $3,000 for a stallion not by a Grand National sire.

The Registry will take all reasonable steps to assist competition managements of this year's Regional Championship events to make sure all potential exhibitors at their competitions are notified of the purse supplements.

Questions about the Grand National should be directed to Patricia Edwards, Senior Registry Associate/Program Manager, at p.edwards@asha.net.

Always a beautiful ride.

Only the Saddlebred can claim the distinction as America's original show and sport horse.

For well over a century now, riding and competing with Saddlebreds have been incomparable experiences.

No horse is as elegant, as fun, as spectacular, durable, athletic, friendly, trainable and rideable – for the entire family.

It's as true today as it's ever been. So whatever your interest – for show, for sport, or just to show off – nothing beats an AMERICAN SADDLEBRED.

AMERICAN SADDLEBRED REGISTRY SWEEPSTAKES

$172,822 PAYOUT IN 2006 SETS 14-YEAR RECORD

The American Saddlebred Registry Two-, Three-, and Four-Year-Old Sweepstakes Program is designed to enhance the breeding, training and showing of the American Saddlebred horse. Entries in the Two-, Three-, and Four-Year-Old Sweepstakes compete in the following classes: Three-Gaited, Five-Gaited, Fine Harness and Three-Gaited Park Pleasure.

The Sweepstakes classes – held at the All American Horse Classic in Indianapolis, Indiana, in September – are conducted under the rules of U.S. Equestrian Federation. The Sweepstakes differ from the ASR Futurity program in that nominations for sires, dams and weanlings are not required. The horse is nominated as a yearling to the Two- and Three-Year-Old Sweepstakes and is nominated to the Four-Year-Old Sweepstakes in its three-year-old year.

Another unique feature of the American Saddlebred Registry Sweepstakes program is that the judge selection is done by a vote of the Sweepstakes' participants with the approval of the ASR Sweepstakes Committee. Prize money is divided between the recorded owner at the time of competition and the original nominator(s). In 2006, prize money was distributed as follows: Two-Year-Old Sweepstakes, $39,355; Three-Year-Old Sweepstakes, $87,508; Four-Year-Old Sweepstakes, $45,959.
