How I participate in the American Saddlebred industry (check all that apply)

Owner

Exhibitor

Breeder

My greatest contributions to the American Saddlebred industry include (please list up to three statements):

-Participation in breed organizations (ASHA, UPHA, USEF, etc.) including local twin states ASHBA chapter

-From starting in academy at 9, to expanding and experience showing American Saddlebreds in a variety of divisions and now breeding as well.

-From my long term participation in the breed, I have a broad network within the Saddlebred industry including trainers, breeding managers, horse show personnel, etc.

I want to be on the ASHBA Board of Directors because?

I have worked in the barns, been an exhibitor, owner, and breeder and would like to help bring my foundation and experiences as well as my background as a tax partner at a multinational CPA firm to help drive the American Saddlebred to the future

What I would like to accomplish most for the breed

Unity. Helping bring everyone together as we move forward. Being more transparent and educational to members so they understand the Boards
