

ASHBA National Select Series At All American Horse Classic

The ASHBA National Select Series National Championship classes for American Saddlebreds and Half Saddlebreds were held once again at the All American Horse Classic. The program encourages more people to show Saddlebreds, Half Saddlebreds and Roadsters/Hackney Roadsters to strengthen the show horse market by providing classes where horses not competing at the World's Championship Horse Show (WCHS) in Louisville can compete against one another. The ASHBA National Select Series program is sponsored by Independent Equine Agents.

Congratulations to all ASHBA National Select Series Champions at this year's All American Horse Classic.
