

SPORT HORSE YEAR END AWARDS EMERGING SPORT HORSE OF THE YEAR

Criteria for winning: An American Saddlebred or Half-Saddlebred receiving the Emerging Sport Horse of the Year award is a horse that demonstrates exceptional potential in their chosen discipline and potential to become an excellent representative of the Saddlebred breed in open (to all breed) competition. Nominations for this award are open to horses in their first or second year of recognized competition outside of the traditional show ring. To receive consideration for this award, the horse must be a registered American Saddlebred or Half American Saddlebred with ASHBA. Nominations must include photos and official show records, with video submissions encouraged. Nominations must be submitted by October 1.

Nominations will be reviewed and voted on by the ASHBA Sport Horse Committee. Recommendations will be submitted to the ASHBA Board of Directors for approval and will be presented at the annual convention.

I would like to propose the following horse for consideration of the Emerging Sport Horse of the Year Award:
